

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 28th September 1867

DEATH OF AN OLD INHABITANT.---We have to records the death of Mr. Robert BAKER, in his 77 year, who died in the neighborhood of Southsea on Saturday last the 21st. He was a kind-hearted benevolent man, and sat as a Commissioner of the town of Ryde, both before the passing of the Ryde Improvement Act, 1854, and subsequently. The deceased enjoyed the respect and esteem of all classes of his fellow-sitizens.

His remains were interred in Ryde cemetery on Friday morning.

Researched by
Ann Barrett