ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 10th April 1858

DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN CHARACTER.---Mr. Edward BARNETT, well-known and highly respected in Ryde for upwards of half-a-century as a theatrical manager; and formerly known, in the same capacity, in the towns of Newport, Cowes, Salisbury Newbury, Reading, Guildford, &c., expired at Ryde on Monday last, in the 86th year of his age. Mr. BARNETT's talents as an artiste were of no mean order, and many will recollect his delineation of Sir Peter TEAZLE, Sir Anthony ABSOLUTE, and his versatility in Midas. Well can we recollect of and have joined in the laughter he could raise. Under his management, too, many a star has shone; JORDAN, WALLACK, DOWTON, BALLS, WAYLETT, CHAPLIN, CRESWICK, and a host of others, have trod the boards here. The memory of Mr. BARNETT will be held in esteem for many a day yet to come.
