

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 20th November 1886

Death Notice:

GEORGE. – Nov. 11th at Ryde, Hugh George, aged 54.

---

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 20th November 1886

ODDFELLOW'S FUNERAL. – On Tuesday afternoon the remains of Mr. Hugh GEORGE, of Prince's-street, were interred at the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the Loyal East Medina Lodge of Oddfellows, and the last token of respect was shown by the brethren; who having assembled at their hall, proceeded to the residence of the deceased, and followed in procession to the grave. There were present P.P.G.M. T.A. BUTLER, secretary; P.P.G.M's MORRIS and RASHLEY; P.G's MARSH and BALLARD; N.G. HICKMAN, and about 30 others of the brethren. At the conclusion of the service each of the brethren cast a sprig of thyme into the grave, in accordance with the custom of the Order.

---

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Jenny Stay
Val Minns