Leonard James GOBLE & Helen Catoline COBBETT

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thurs 2nd September 1965

Mr. L. J. GOBLE.---Mr. Leonard James GOBLE, of 61 Arthur Street, died at his home yesterday, aged 73. He leaves a widow. Born in the Island, Mr. GOBLE served in the I.W. Rifles during the First World War, losing an arm in the battle of Gaza. After the war he was employed at H.M. Dockyard, Portsmouth, for more than 34 years, and received a medal for long service. He returned to the Island in 1963.

The funeral service will be held at All Saints' Parish Church on Friday, when the Vicar of Ryde, the Rev. Ronald GRANGER, will officiate. Interment follows in Ryde Cemetery.

Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR and Son are making the arrangements.
