

THE LATE MRS. E. HAYLES

The funeral of the late Mrs E. HAYLES, of St. Wilfrids, took place on Thursday the 28th of August. The deceased was well known and respected in the town. She was the second daughter of Mr G. DAY, of Surrey Street. The coffin was of polished elm, with brass mountings and bore the inscription:

MARIE ANTOINETTE HAYLES,
At Rest August 24th, 1913,
Aged 38 years.

The first portion of the burial service took place at the Primitive Church, conducted by the Rev. J. ASHWORTH. On entering, the organist, Mr BROWN, played "O Rest in the Lord," two hymns were sung, "Asleep in Jesus," and "Jesus is our Shepherd." The dead March in "Saul" was played as the cortege left the church. There was a large number of beautiful wreaths, among which were the following. A large sheaf of roses from her devoted husband, from St Wilfrids garden; wreaths from Dad; Jim and Harry; Lucy and Charles; Walt and Clara; Audrey; Will and Emily; Mother, Nell and Annie; George, Ern and Edith; Lizzie and Frank; Mr and Mrs COOPER and family; Jack and Lil; Mag and Herbert; Jennie; Lady DALY; Lieut. V. A. H. DALY; General and Mrs. ALDERSON; Colonel and Mrs. Denham MURRAY; All at St. Wilfrids; Mr and Mrs E LEAL; Mr and Mrs A. SAVAGE; Mr and Mrs DOWNER; Mr and Mrs A. BRADING; Alice BUTLER; Mrs POCOCK and family; Margie and Lil; Mrs PICKNELL and family; Mrs KING; and Mr and Mrs NEWMAN.
