ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 26th January 1907

DEATH AND FUNERAL OF MRS. E. G. HOUNSELL. - The remains of the late Mrs. Caroline HOUNSELL, wife of the Mr. E. G. HOUNSELL, of 1, St. James's Street, Ryde, who passed away on Thursday in last week, were interred in Ryde Cemetery on Tuesday. Mrs. HOUNSELL, who was one of Ryde's oldest residents, had been ill for some months, and though the end was not unexpected it aroused a feeling of deep regret in a large number of townspeople who knew her. Mrs. HOUNSELL was in her 77th year, and the day on which the funeral took place was the 55th anniversary of her wedding day.

The service was conducted by the Rev. C. Rhodes HALL. The chief mourners were her husband (Mr. E. G. HOUNSELL), her five eldest children, Messrs. Douglas, Robert, Phillip, Leigh and Arthur, also her two sons-in-law, Mr. A. PAGE and Mr. W. H. PIDSLEY. Other mourners were Mr. G. MUNDELL (brother), Dr. F. J. GREENING, Major ELLERY and W. DENHAM. Wreaths were sent by Mr. Mr. E. G. HOUNSELL (husband), Messrs. Douglas, Robert and Phillip HOUNSELL (sons), Ellie and Millie HOUNSELL (daughters), Mr. and Mrs. Leigh HOUNSELL (son and daughter-in-law, and two grandchildren), Mr. and Mrs. Arthur HOUNSELL, (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. A. PAGE (daughter and son-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. W. H. PIDSLEY (daughter and son-in-law), Mrs. and Miss COOPER, Hove (sister and niece), Mr. G. MUNDELL (brother), Miss MUNDELL and Mrs. FOSTER (two eldest nieces), Mrs. James MUNDELL (sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Ernest COOPER (nephew), Dr. F. J. GREENING, Mrs. WRIGHT, Wolverhampton, Mr. L. C. YOUNG, Mrs. W. DENHAM and Mrs. J. DAVIS, Miss Alice ELEY, Dorothy, Bertram, Lorna (grandchildren), Mr. and Mrs. DUFFET, Mrs. Will SMITH, Miss DUFFET, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. HARTNALL.

Mr. HOUNSELL and family desire to express their sincere thanks to the many friends for kind enquiries during the late Mrs. HOUNSELL's illness for their kindness and sympathy in their bereavement.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Margaret Truckel