Death of Miss K.E. RYAN. - The death occurred at her home, Westfield Lodge, Marlborough Road, on Sunday, after a short illness, of Miss Kathleen Elizabeth RYAN. The youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis RYAN, she came with the family from London about 20 years ago. She travelled extensively and in Rome was blessed by POPE PIUS IX. Her artistic talents found expression in painting and sculpture, and she was a keen gardener and tennis player. Her sisters are Miss Nell Hammond RYAN, the authoress and former chairman of the I.W. Writers' Circle, and Miss Margaret S. RYAN, a former member of the Education Committee.

The coffin rested in St. Mary's R.C. Church during Tuesday night and on Wednesday Fr. MacDERMOT-ROE celebrated a requiem Mass. The principal mourner was Capt. C. Hammond RYAN (brother). The burial was at Ryde Cemetery.

Messrs. J. WHEELER and Sons made the arrangements.
