

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 17th December 1932

Death Notice:

Le MARCHANT: Dec. 10 at Brencliff, Shanklin, Annie Mary, widow of Major A.T. Le MARCHANT, 2nd Dorset Regt.

---

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 17th December 1932

DEATH OF MRS. LE MARCHANT. – The death took place at Brencliff, Park-road, on Sunday of Mrs. Annie Mary Le MARCHANT, widow of Major a Le MARCHANT. The deceased, who had reached an advanced age, was well known and highly respected in the district. Her husband predeceased her some five years ago. Their only son, Capt. Henry Neville Le MARCHANT, was killed on active service in the Dardanelles campaign in 1915.

The funeral was on Wednesday, when a service at St. Saviour's Church was conducted by the Rev. M.A. BERE. Mr. C.G. GRAWLEY, at the organ, accompanied the singing of the hymn "Let saints on earth," and played Handel's "Largo" as the cortege left the building. The mourners were the Hon. Alice NEVILLE (niece) and Mr. H. PERRY (cousin). Those present at the church included Miss BABER, Mrs. PERROT (Ryde), Mrs. LUSHINGTON, Dr. J. COWPER, Col. The O'GORMAN, Mr. J.E. SHARPE, Mrs. FRANCIS, Mr. and Mrs A. DOWNER, Miss DOWNER, Mr. G. WEST, and Mr. S. GENGE. The interment was in the family vault at Binstead, the Rev. M.A. BERE also officiating at the graveside.

The arrangements were made by Messrs. WHITE Bros.

---

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Jenny Stay
Val Minns