The Late Miss BRUCE.- The funeral of Miss I. L. BRUCE, of 3 Clyde House, Dover Street, took place on Friday week at St. James's Church, of which she had been a member for many years, as were her mother and step-father before her, the latter having been a trustee of the church.

The service was conducted by the Rev. E. M. GREEN, who referred to Miss BRUCE's brave sunny nature, unshaken by an accident six years ago which kept her confined to the house from that time and which only distressed her because it prevented her from continuing her visiting the sick and the blind. She was much beloved, and many expressions of sympathy and beautiful flowers were received. Miss BRUCE's favourite hymn "The Lord's my Shepherd," to the tune "Crimond," and "On the resurrection morning" were sung, and "Peace, perfect peace" was played on the organ as the cortege left the church.
