

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 12th June 1971

Former Dairyman. - Mr. James Oliver TAYLOR, aged 66, of 35 Harding Road, died at the Royal I.W. County Hospital on Friday week. The second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. C.W. TAYLOR, he was a lifelong resident and had been connected with farming for most of his life. At one time he had a smallholding and he had been a dairyman for nearly 20 years until eight years ago, when he obtained employment with the Southern Electricity Board, retiring about two years ago. He served in the Home Guard during the last war.

The Rev. A. HOUGH officiated at the funeral service at St. John's Church on Wednesday. The mourners were Mrs. TAYLOR (widow), Mr. and Mrs. C.W. TAYLOR (son and daughter-in-law), Messrs. C. and J. TAYLOR (brothers), Mesdames F. RASHLEY and Mr. CREWS (sisters), Mrs. G. LANE (sister, and her two daughters, Betty and Joan), Mesdames R. WINSHIP and J. WADE (nieces), Mr. H. JONES (cousin) and Mr. and Mrs. C. MORRIS. Interment was at Ashley Cemetery.

Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Margaret Truckel