

In 1911 Edith GENGE (9) was living at Toscen Hill, Chard, Somerset, with her widowed grandmother Edith (60), uncle George (35), aunt Flossie (21), her father William (31), sister Gladys (10) and brother William (4).

MARRIAGE: 1927 at All Saints Church, Ryde
Arthur BEWELL & Edith Lucy GENGE

1947 REGISTER OF ELECTORS – Stella Maris, Melville-street, Ryde
BEWELL Arthur
BEWELL Edith

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 30th September 1954

Death Notice:-

BEWELL.- On September 24, at her home, 13 Millward Road, Ryde, Mrs. Edith Lucy BEWELL, aged 52.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 30th September 1954

Mrs. E. L. BEWELL.- Mrs Edith Lucy BEWELL, of 13 Millward Road, died at her home on Friday. She was 52. A member of Binstead Parish Church, Mrs. BEWELL's only son, Keith, is a choir member there and also a server. Mrs. BEWELL, although having lived in Ryde for more than 25 years, was a native of Somerset, where she returned during the war years.

Chief mourners at the funeral at Ryde Cemetery on Tuesday were Mr. A. BEWELL, widower; Mr. K. BEWELL, son; Mr. W. GEORGE, brother; Mr. and Mrs. E. BURROWS, brother-in-law and sister; Miss E. BEWELL, sister-in-law; Mr. R. BEWELL, brother-in-law; Mrs. ST. J. BIGGS, Mrs. HEDGE, Miss GARDNER, Mrs ASHMAN, Mrs HALSTEAD, Mrs. E. W. HANSFORD, Mrs. and Miss THORNE, Mr. and Mrs. C. SIBBICK, Mrs. CORNETT, also representing Mrs. COOK; Mr. and Mrs. PIKE and Mr. MACPHERSON. The Rector of Binstead, the Rev. H. N. WRIGLEY, conducted the service.

Messrs. G. J. WHITEWOOD and Son, Ltd., of Ryde, made the funeral arrangements.

Floral tributes were received from the staff at HANSFORDS, Ryde, and from the 7th Ryde (1st Binstead) Scout Group.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Jenny Stay
Kate MacDonell