

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 27th August 1921

RYDE MAN KILLED
FATAL CYCLING ACCIDENT AT WOOTTON

A terrible cycling accident occurred on Sunday afternoon to Mr Fred BUTLER, a tailor and turf commission agent, of 45 Argyll Street, Ryde, whose injuries proved fatal. He was cycling home through Wootton and was picked up in an unconscious condition, with blood streaming from his temple. He was conveyed to the County Hospital where he died the same night.

---

Researched by
Ann Barrett