ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 10th March 1956

Death of Sub-Postmistress.- The death occurred at the George Street sub-Post Office on Wednesday week, of Mrs. Louisa Kate READ, aged 76, widow of Mr. Charles READ, who died in 1933. She was born in the town, and in June of this year would have completed 50 years' association with the sub-Post Office. Upon the death of her father, Mr. W.M. HOGG, in 1928, she became postmistress, carrying out her duties with courtesy and ability. She was a valued member and past president of the Island branch of the National Federation of Sub-Postmasters, and was vice-president at the time of her death. Her interest and enthusiasm also benefited the National Savings movement, and she had been a keen worker for Holy Trinity Church. Her father was for many years photographer to Queen Victoria at Osborne House.

The Rev. H. WILDE, M.B.E, M.C., officiated at the funeral at Holy Trinity Church on Monday. The mourners were Mrs. N. BARTLETT and Mrs. R. DORRELL (step-daughters) and Mrs. I. GRIMES, Mrs. E. GODDEN, and Mrs. J. COTTIS (nieces). The Ryde Street, Strand, West Street, Medina (Cowes), and Yarmouth sub-Post Offices, and the Island branch of the National Federation of Sub-Postmasters were represented, and the wreaths included one from the last-named organisation. The interment was at Ryde Cemetery.
