

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 19th December 1940

Death Notice

TURNER. - On December 13th, at "Lamorna," Garfield Road, Ryde, Mrs. W. D. TURNER ("Sister" Winifred), aged 63 years.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 19th December 1940

MRS. W. D. TURNER

Mrs. W. D. TURNER ("Sister" Winifred), a sister of the Rev. H. MACROW, minister of the Garfield Road Methodist Church, and a Methodist deaconess, died at her brother's residence, "Lamorna," Garfield Road, on Friday.

She came to the Island on her brother's appointment in September, and although she had been for some time past an invalid she was not unable to share in the fellowship of the church. During her short period in the town she had enjoyed the kindness and sympathy of many of the congregation.

Her spheres of service in former days had been in Plaistow, Hackney, and Whitechapel Missions, and also in the provinces at Halifax, Walsall and Sheffield.

The funeral was at the Garfield Road Church and Ryde Cemetery on Monday, the Revs. A. J. KEELEY and E. S. WILLIAMSON officiating.

The mourners were the Rev. H. MACROW and Mrs. MACROW, Miss MACROW, and Miss M. V. MACROW, Mrs. F. STEVENS, and Mrs. TYSON

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Jenny Stay
Margaret Truckel