

DEATH OF MR. R. MILFORD.- The death took place at the County Hospital on Sunday of Mr. Reginald MILFORD, of 81 George Street, at the age of 39. Mr. MILFORD was a member of a well-known local family, being the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. MILFORD, of Harding Road. After a short period of service in the Hussars, he became a fitter at the Somerton Works at Cowes. Recently he acquired a newsagent's round. He was much respected, and deep sympathy is felt with his widow and three children.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, the first part of the service being held at Holy Trinity Church and conducted by the Rev. O. E. GITTENS. The mourners were Mrs. MILFORD (widow), Master David MILFORD (son), Mr. and Mrs. J. MILFORD (father and mother), Mr. W. MILFORD (brother), Mrs. TAYLOR and Mrs. BOWLER (sisters), Mr. and Mrs. E WRAY (father-in-law and mother-in-law), Mr. A ELDRIDGE, Mr. Colin WRAY (brothers-in-law), Miss Betty WRAY (sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. G. COTTON (uncle and aunt), Mrs. KING, Miss C. COTTON, Mrs. C. WRAY, and Mrs. M. COTTON (cousins). The interment was at the cemetery, and a large number of floral tributes included one from Messrs. ROBERTS and WRATE, GREENHAM and HOGG.

Messrs J. PERKIS and Son were the undertakers.

Mrs. MILFORD and Family wish to tender their sincere thanks to friends and relatives for their kindness in their sad bereavement. Please accept this as only intimation.

---