

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1025. folio 37. page 11.
Address: "Eton Villa" Trinity-street, Ryde, IW.

William J. ESCOTT. Head. M. 48. Mechanical Dentist Gold Worker. St. Giles, London
Eleanor M. ESCOTT. Wife. M. 48. St. Pancras, London.

Edward H. ESCOTT. Son. S. 19. Mechanical Dentist Gold & Vulcanite Worker. Ryde, IW.

Stanley W. D. ESCOTT. Son. S. 16. Pupil Teacher. Ryde, IW.

In 1911 Eleanor Mary Escott (58) was living at Eton Villa, Trinity Street, Ryde, with her husband William Joseph (58), and her son Stanley William David (26)

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Saturday 12th January 1933

MRS. E.M. ESCOTT.

We regret to report the death of Mrs. Eleanor Mary ESCOTT, which took place at her residence, "Eton Villa," Trinity Street, on Thursday. Deceased was in her 81st year and lived alone since the death of her husband, Mr. W.J. ESCOTT., 12 years ago. She possessed a very happy disposition and her many friends will mourn her passing.

The Rev. C.E. TOOTH (Curate) conducted the funeral service at Holy Trinity Church on Monday afternoon. The mourners were Mr. and Mrs. S.W. ESCOTT (son and daughter-in-law), Mrs. W.G. STONEHOLD of London, and Mrs. E.E. LINES, of Torquay (daughters). Mr. Harold ESCOTT (son) was unable to be present as he is at present in Vancouver.

Among those present were Miss SCOTT (Matron of the Dunraven Nursing Home), and many of the deceased's friends. The wreaths number 20, were exceptionally beautiful.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Jenny Stay
Val Minns