

The Late Mrs. W. A. Dyer. - The funeral took place on Friday week of Mrs Mildred Catherine DYER, wife of Mr. W. A. DYER, of 18 Bedworth Place, who died at the County Hospital on Tuesday week, aged 45. The only daughter of Mr. J. HOUSE, of Haylands, she had been a lifelong resident. She was a member of the Methodist Church, and also took a keen interest in Salvation Army activities. Sympathy is felt with Mr. DYER and his two sons and two daughters.

The Rev. H. BRAMWELL HOWARD officiated at the service in the Methodist Church and Mr. H. BRADING (organist) accompanied two hymns. The mourners were Mr. DYER, Messrs. C. A. and H. DYER (sons), the Misses B. and J. DYER (daughters), Mr. J. HOUSE (father), Mr. H. HOUSE (brother), Mrs. B. BRADING, Mr. V. BRADING, and Mr. F. ADAMS (cousins), Mrs. L. DYER (mother-in-law), Mrs. P. COSSINS (sister-in-law), Mr. H. DYER (brother-in-law), Mrs. M. WRIGHT, Miss K. RECORD, and Messrs. R. COOPER and J. RICHARDS. The interment was at Ryde Cemetery, and the 26 floral tributes included those from neighbours of Bedworth Place; the Salvation Army; and Mr. T. H. LACEY of Bembridge (Mr. DYER's employer).

Messrs. J. H. PERKIS made the arrangements.

Mr. DYER and family are deeply grateful for the messages of sympathy, and the beautiful floral tributes, and ask kind friends to please accept this as the only acknowledgement.
