

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 16th November 1895

ACCIDENT.—On Friday night last, one of the employee of the Isle of Wight Railway, named Alfred PHILLIPS, met with a serious accident. He had gone to extinguish the lamps at a signal-post at St. John's Road Station, when he fell from the top on to the metals below, a distance of 16ft or 18ft. His wrist was broken, and he was very severely bruised. He was taken to his home at Bennett Street, where he still remains.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Val Minns