

FUNERAL- On Thursday afternoon the remains of George JEFFERY, for many years a porter in the employ of the Joint Railway Companies, were carried to the grave by a number of his fellow employees. Deceased, who was 53 years of age, died on the previous Friday from Phthisis. Several of the Pier Company's staff and other railway men attended. Mr LANGWORTH, the station-master was present. The Rev. E. Bruce PEARSON officiated.

Researched by
Ann Barrett