

Extract from The Gentleman's Magazine Aug 1863

June 28, 1863. At his residence, Beachlands, Ryde, Isle of Wight, aged 92, Gen. Sir James Lillyman Caldwell, G.C.G. He entered the service of the late Hon. E. I. Company, in the Madres Engineers, in July, 1789; became lieut. Dec., 1792; capt., Jan., 1796; major, Jan., 1806; lieut.-col., Sept., 1811; col., May, 1824; major-jen., Jan., 1837; leuit.-gen., Nov., 1846; and gen., June, 1854. He served with much distinction in the wars with Tippoo Saib, and was three times severely wounded. The Order of the Bath was conferred on him in 1848.

Researched and typed by Janette Gregson
Source: <http://books.google.com>