DEATH OF MRS. RICKARD

We regret to record the death of Mrs. RICKARD, who was for many years connected with the commercial life of the town, by carrying on, after the death of her husband, in conjunction with her daughters, the business of a jeweller and watchmaker in the High Street. The funeral took place on Tuesday at the Cemetery, the Rev. R.J. HARRIS, United Methodist, officiating. The chief mourners were the Misses RICKARD (2), Mr. A. HOLMES, J.P., and Mr. J.G. DUFFETT. The coffin was of polished elm with brass furnishings bore the inscription:

Mary Maria RICKARD.

Died February 23rd, 1917,

Aged 74 years.

The funeral arrangements were entrusted to Messrs. PURNELL and PURNELL.
