ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday November 11th, 1914.

Local Lady's Death and Funeral

Much sympathy is felt with Captain A.H. BYNG in the great loss he has sustained by the death of his wife, who passed away at Wydford House, Bellevue Road, on Friday last at the age of 66 years. Mrs. BYNG, was the mother of the late Captain Arthur Maitland BYNG, of the 7th Fusiliers who was killed in action in the battle of the Aisne.

She had resided in Ryde with her family for about 22 years, and had always generously supported all benevolent objects. The funeral was on Tuesday, when the service was conducted by the Rev. J.E. EDDIS and the Rev. Noel H. STUBBS at Holy Trinity Church. The remains, in a coffin of polished oak and brass mountings, and bearing the inscription: " Florence BYNG , 65 years of age, died November 14th, 1914." Were interred in a brick grave at the Cemetery.

The family mourners were: The husband, (Captain A.H. BYNG), the deceased youngest son, Mrs. GORDON (daughter), Mr. William MAITLAND (brother-in-law), Colonel COLQUHOUN (brother-in-law), Mrs. STEPHENS (sister-in-law), Mr. A.S. GORDON (son-in-law), Mrs. Fuller MAITLAND, Miss Beatrice BYNG (daughter) , and Miss Nora BYNG (daughter). Nurse MIDLANE attended from the household. Those present at the Church included Mrs. BEN , Miss HOFFMEISTER, the Misses CAREY, Miss , Mrs. EDDIS, Mrs. Gordon ROBBINS, Miss HEWETT and Miss *****

NB: Unfortunately, some of the names at the end of this report, were impossible to read.
