MILITARY FUNERAL –

A familiar figure has passed away in the death of a Crimean Veteran, Sergt. Samuel GROVES, of Warwick-street, who was just 80, and had seen considerable service abroad as his medals denoted. He was a civil, pleasant old man and will be much missed. The funeral took place at the cemetery on Wednesday when a firing party came over from Parkhurst and the utmost respect was shown, the “Last Post” being sounded at the close of the service.
