THE DEATH OF AN OLD INHABITANT

Another link with old Ryde is severed by the death of Mr. Joseph HARMSWORTH, florist, late of Bellevue-road, who was in his 87th year. The deceased had lived in Ryde ever since his youth, and one of his first works was the planting of the trees which now form the beautiful Spencer-road avenue. The deceased was for nearly 70 years a devoted and consistent member of the Wesleyan society, and he was the oldest Methodist in Ryde, if not indeed the Island. The funeral took place yesterday.
