

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 21st Nov 1914

LONG AND FAITHFUL SERVICE RECOGNISED

Mr. Thomas Adam GAWN, who for some years held the position of Customs Officer at Ryde, has been presented, by direction of His Majesty the King, with an Imperial Service medal bearing the inscription, "For Long and Faithful Service," and a parchment setting forth his long and meritorious service. The medal was presented to Mr. GAWN by Mr. WELLER, the Customs Surveyor.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett