

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1031. folio 108/109. pages 4/5.

Abode: Lowtherville, Ventnor, IW.

William SCOVELL. Head. M. 49. Stone Mason. Ventnor, IW.

Mary SCOVELL. Wife. M. 48. Broadchalke, Wiltshire.

Bessie SCOVELL. Dau. S. 24. Ventnor, IW.

Alfred SCOVELL. Son. S. 22. Gardener (not domestic). Ventnor, IW.

Edmund SCOVELL. Son. S. 21. Cellarman. Ventnor, IW.

Alice SCOVELL. Dau. S. 17. Ventnor, IW.

George SCOVELL. Son. S. 15. Railway Porter. Ventnor, IW.

William SCOVELL. Son. 11. Ventnor, IW.

Florence SCOVELL. Dau. 9. Ventnor, IW.

Violet SCOVELL. Dau. 7. Ventnor, IW.

Rosie SCOVELL. Dau. 5. Ventnor, IW.

Wilfred SCOVELL. Son. 3. Ventnor, IW.

Marriage –

Henry DEIGHTON & Evelyn Alice SCOVELL. Dec Quarter 1906. Poole. 5a. 650.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES April 2nd 1931, page 3.

DEATH OF MRS. ALICE DEIGHTON –

The death occurred on Monday week at her residence 53 Bettsworth-road, Swanmore, of Mrs. Alice DEIGHTON, widow of the late Mr. Henry DEIGHTON, a chief petty officer in the Navy who predeceased her some 10 years ago. Mrs. DEIGHTON was highly respected in the neighbourhood and was a very vigorous worker at St. Michael's Church. The funeral service took place at St. Michael's on Friday, the interment following at Ryde Cemetery. A large number of people were present at the Requiem Mass which was conducted by the Rev. A.C.DURHAM (Vicar).
