OBITUARY - EX-ALDERMAN'S DEATH

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Arthur Wellesley HILL, who passed peacefully away at his residence, Barkstone Ash, Argyll Street, Ryde, on Monday evening in his 71st year. Mr. HILL was first elected to the Ryde Council in 1921, and was elevated to the Aldermanic bench some eight years ago. He retired from his position as alderman in October, 1938, through ill-health. In the 1933 election he was returned with 1,201 votes at the top of the poll in West Ward. Mr. HILL was always an ardent supporter of a project for a simple bathing pool to provide bathing facilities at low water, and he invariably interpreted his duties in the best interests of the ratepayers. His brother Mr. B. HILL had been a well known and respected local business man. The funeral takes place at Ryde Parish Church to-day (Thursday) at 3p.m.
