

Casualty Details

Name: HASSARD, EDWARD JOHN
Initials: E J
Nationality: United Kingdom
Rank: Lieutenant
Regiment/Service: Royal Field Artillery
Age: 23
Date of Death: 07/11/1918
Awards: M C
Additional information: Son of William Charles and Louisa Kate Hassard, of 41, Palace Rd., Brixton, London. Born at Streatham Hill.
Casualty Type: Commonwealth War Dead
Grave/Memorial Reference: 102. 34975.
Cemetery: WEST NORWOOD CEMETERY AND CREMATORIUM

Cemetery Details

Cemetery: WEST NORWOOD CEMETERY AND CREMATORIUM
Country: United Kingdom
Locality: unspecified
Location Information: The cemetery is to the north-east of West Norwood Station, Lambeth. There is a Screen Wall Memorial bearing the names of all 1914-1918 burials not marked by headstones. There are additional panels naming those of the 1939-1945 war with unmarked graves and to those cremated at West Norwood Crematorium. These are erected behind the Cross of Sacrifice in the forecourt of the cemetery.
Historical Information: There are 136 Commonwealth burials of the 1914-1918 war and 52 of the 1939-1945 war here and an additional 18 cremations of the 1939-1945 war. There is 1 Belgian war burial.
No. of Identified Casualties: 208