SCOUTMASTER'S WEDDING

The marriage took place at Holy Trinity Church on Saturday of Mr. Jack FOOTER, of Wencoe, Argyll-street, and Miss Olive Betty SMITH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. SMITH, of 100 Monkton-street. The bridegroom is assistant Scoutmaster of the church troop. The Rev. L. N. St. ALPHONSE officiated and the hymns were "Lead us, Heavenly Father", and "O perfect love." The bride wore a floral dress under a pale blue coat with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white carnations and red tulips. She was attended by her sister, Miss Doris SMITH, attired in a blue costume and hat and wearing a spray of pink carnations. The best man was Mr. H. PARRINGTON. The honeymoon was spent at Hastings. The bride travelled in a pale blue ensemble. The presents included a dinner service from Messrs. H. PACK and Company's staff, an electric iron from the London Mutual Assurance Company's staff, a frameless mirror from the Boy Scouts' Association, dessert knives from the Trinity Social Club, cutlery from the Sunday-school, a statuette from the Trinity Scouts and Cubs, and a work box from All Saints' Rangers.
