

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 4th June 1904

MARRIAGE OF MR. T. S. MELLANBY

Mr. T. S. MELLANBY, the popular hon. secretary of the Ryde Football Club, was married to Miss V. E. AUSTIN, daughter of Mr. A. A. AUSTIN, at St. Thomas's Church on Wednesday, the Rev. C. Rhodes HALL officiating. The bride, who wore a dress of white voile, with insertion lace, and picture hat of rolled chiffon and plume, was given away by her father and was attended by Miss Ena AUSTIN (niece) and Miss May G. JESSE (cousin) as bridesmaids. Mr. A. F. WRIGHT was best man. There were a number of football friends of the bridegroom in church, including Messrs. E. SWEETMAN, F. ROGERS, O. LINDEN, A. FRY, W. PINCHARD, and ANDERSON, and the Rev. C. L. BLAKE. The newly-married couple left later in the day for Brighton, where the honeymoon is being spent.

---

Researched by
Ann Barrett