

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 15th Jan. 1944, front page

Death Notice:-

CRADOCK .. Jan. 11, at 53 Egerton-cresent, S/W., Julia Lucy, widow of Col. E.W. CRADOCK, formerly of the Lawn, Spencer-road, Ryde.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 20th January 1944

Death Notice –

CRADOCK .. On January 11th 1944, Julia Lucy, widow of Colonel CRADOCK, and daughter of the late Sir Sam BROWNE, V.C., K.C.S.I., G.C.B., and Lady BROWNE, late of The Wood, Ryde.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 20th January 1944.

MRS. CRADOCK

Mrs. Julia Lucy CRADOCK, wife of Lieut.-Col. E. W. CRADOCK, D. L., formerly of The Lawn, Spencer-road, died on Tuesday week at 53 Egerton Crescent, S.W. She was the second daughter of the late General Sir Sam BROWNE, V.C., G.C.B., K.C.S.I., of The Wood, St. John's Park. With her husband she was much interested in the I.W. Rose Society and the annual exhibition was held on several occasions in the grounds of their home. They moved several years ago, living first at Botley and Chiddingfold before going to London.

The funeral service took place at All Saints' Church on Friday, and Canon R. S. MOXON officiated. The mourners were Col. H. Adderley CRADOCK (step-son), Miss Violet BROWNE (sister), Mrs. Percy BROWNE (sister-in-law), Mr. Sam BROWNE (nephew), and Miss E. BROWNE (niece). Brig.-Gen. S. D. BROWNE, C.B., C.B.E. (brother) was prevented from attending.

Among those present were: Lieut.-Col. J. E. RHODES, Miss RHODES, Mr. G. FARDELL, Mr. G. HUMBER (formerly chauffeur), Mrs. WARREN (representing Mr. E. LAVERS).

Researched by
Ann Barrett
Lydia Jackson