OBITUARY
MR. GEORGE WADDON

It is with regret that we record the death of Mr. George WADDON, aged 61, which occurred at his residence 39 Church-street, Swanmore, on Friday. The deceased was a native of Ryde and was employed as a gardener by Miss KENT, of West-street. He was a member of Oddfellows. The funeral took place at St. Michael's Church on Monday, the Rev A. DURHAM officiating. The hymns sang were "Now the labourers task is o'er" and "On the Resurrection Morning."

The mourners were Mrs WADDON (wife), Mr. P. WADDON (son), Mrs. F. SEARLE and the Misses Ethel and Maude WADDON (daughters), Mabel and Alfred BUSHELL (step-children), Messrs. T. and W. WADDON (brothers), Mr. F. SEARLE (son-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. F. SMITH (sister and brother-in-law), Mrs. DYER (sister), and Mr. P. JACKSON.

NB: It has to be said that most of the official records found for George spell his surname as WADDON, however, his birth was registered as WADHAM and so were references to his parents spelt as WADHAM.
