ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday, 2nd August 1902 p.4

FUNERAL OF MR. CHARLES COLENUUTT, J.P.

The remains of our respected townsman, Mr Charles COLENUUTT J.P. were interred in Ryde Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, amongst many tokens of the respect in which he was held. The remains were enclosed in a shell, and this again in a polished oak coffin with brass mountings, and it is long since a casket of such a large size has been interred in Ryde Cemetery. The service at the grave was performed by the Rev. H. COLEY, the pastor of the George Street Congregational Church, of which Mr COLENUUTT had been a deacon for very many years. The rev. gentleman, after the coffin had been committed to its last resting place, offered an entempore prayer, and expressed the hope that the example set by the deceased would lead others to devote the energies and talents with which God had endowed them, to public service, and for the good of those around them.

The chief mourners were Mr Thomas E. COLENUUTT(grandson), Messrs James ELEY, Henry COLENUUTT, Fabian COLENUUTT, Richard COLENUUTT, Charles A. COLENUUTT, George W. COLENUUTT and Walter ELEY (nephews), J. ELEY jun. (grand-nephew), and Henry MEADER.

The Ryde Borough Bench was represented by Ald. J. JAMES, J.P. (ex-Mayor), Mr H.H. POLLARD, J.P., and Ald. S. FOWLER J.P. Mr F. NEWMAN J.P., C.E., was unable to attend through an important engagement. The Town Council were represented by – Ald. J. COOMBES, Ald. W. LOCKE, Councillors W.H. THIRKELL, A. HOLMES, G.A. BLACKALL, G. E. MEARS, P. R. DENNY, A. MILLWARD, and A. TEAGUE; Mr C. H. COLLIS (Deputy-Town Clerk), and Mr F. C. LOADER (Collector). The Pier Directorate was represented by Mr W. GIBBS and Mr J. O. BROOK.

Amongst those representing the Congregational Church were- Mr J. SPELT (ex-Postmaster of Ryde), Mr S. COMDEN, and Captain ADAMS. There were also present – Rev. E. BRUCE-PEARSON, Mr W. H. DAISH, Mr H. J. JOLLIFFE, Mr J. C. HARTNALL, Mr S. D. MUNDAY, Mr JENNINGS etc.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs PURNELL and PURNELL.
