

1891 CENSUS: RG12/892. folio 26. page 45
Address: 44 Weeks-road, Ryde, IW.

Henry S. JONES. Head. Mar. 39. Coal Merchant & Grocer. Ryde, IW.

Emily C. JONES. Wife. Mar. 40. Godshill, IW.

Lillian C. JONES. Dau. S. 17. Board School Teacher. Ryde, IW.

Harriet C. HINGS. Niece. 7. Southsea, Hants.

---

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1025. folio 112. page 18.
Address: 44 Weeks-road, Ryde, IW.

Henry S. JONES. Head. Widr. 49. Coal Merchant (own account). Ryde, IW.

Lilian C. JONES. Dau. S. 27. Ryde, IW.

---

MARRIAGE: c1902 at Register Office or Non-conformist Church (Registrars ref: RO47/119)
Henry Samuel JONES & Lucy BROADBERY

---

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday, 4th October 1930 page 8

DEATH OF MR. H. S. JONES

The death took place on Monday of Mr. Henry Samuel JONES, of 44 Weeks-road. Deceased, who was a well-known member of the community, passed away in his 80th year after much suffering borne uncomplainingly and with great patience. His death closes a life of great usefulness and ends a period of citizenship of much worth. Those associated with the United Methodist Church will feel his loss most keenly for Mr. JONES had been connected with that denomination for 55 years. In every phase of that church's life he was a conspicuous figure, and he gave all he had to give for the advancement of its influence and welfare. In addition to being the oldest trustee he was for 25 years superintendent of the Sunday-school, an officer of the Band of Hope, and a circuit steward. Throughout his long membership he worked devotedly on its behalf and was held in the highest esteem by everyone. He was also one of the most capable piano movers in the Island. He was twice married and leaves one son. His second wife predeceased him about eight years ago.

The funeral took place on Wednesday, the first part of the service being held at the United Methodist Church. The Rev. R. TROLLEY officiated and in the course of an address said the deceased was loved and respected for his high Christian character and for his devotion to Jesus Christ and His Church. Deceased loved his fellowship and his worship in the church which he had served splendidly with loyalty and devotion for so many years. Mr. R. LAKE was at the organ and deceased's favourite hymn "Sleep on, beloved, and take thy rest," was sung, the organist playing "O rest in the Lord" while the remains were taken from the church for interment at the cemetery.

The chief mourners were Mr. George JONES (son), Mrs. DIMMER (sister), Mrs. G. JONES (daughter-in-law), Mrs. EDMUNDS and Mrs. GUY, of Newport, Mrs. DOWNER, Mrs. BEAUCHAMP, and Mrs. J. HEARN. Amongst others present were Messrs. H. COOKE, W. DALLIMORE, G.W. WHEELER, G. MOREY, and A. FAIRCLOUGH (trustees), Mr. and Mrs. LAKE, Mr. and Mrs. WELCH, Mrs. MERWOOD, Miss SHAWYER, and Messrs. J. DIMMER, G. H. V. BONNER, H. D. MABEY, A. NORRIS, S. ORCHARD, H. TAYLOR, D. HAIR (Messrs. TEAGUE and Co.), and H. CRUMP (Messrs. GODFREY and Co.)

Among the collection of flowers were floral tributes from members of the church and the circuit stewards. Mr. O. PERKIS was the undertaker.

---

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 11th October 1930, front page.

Death notice –

JONES .. Sept 29th at 44 Weeks-road, Ryde, Henry Samuel JONES, aged 79 years. –Mr. and Mrs. George JONES wish to thank all neighbours and friends for their kind enquiries during Mr. JONES's long illness, also for the lovely wreath sent. Will friends please accept this as the only intimation.

---

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Lydia Jackson
Diana Wood