HAMPSHIRE TELEGRAPH & SUSSEX CHRONICLE Saturday 6th March 1886

FUNERAL OF MRS BERESFORD

The remains of this lady, who formerly resided at Ryde, but lately at Southsea, where she died last week, were interred in the Ryde Cemetery on Monday, the weather being unpropitious. The mourners numbered twelve, half of them being ladies. On arriving at the Pier Head the body was conveyed by the train, where there were in waiting a Wellington funeral car and the requisite carriages. The coffin was of polished oak, but quite hidden by numerous wreaths of the choicest exotica and hot-house flowers and plants.
