SUDDEN DEATH

On Sunday a very sudden death occurred in St. John's-road. A lad named Henry Thomas DORE, about fifteen years of age, son of Mr. James DORE, the senior letter carrier, attended Trinity Church on Sunday in his usual health, and in the evening was sitting on the sofa quietly reading the Bible, when he suddenly fell back and expired . Mr. Alfred WOODWARD was in immediate attendance , but of course could do nothing. Heart disease was the cause of death, from which the poor boy had suffered for years.
