*From the book RYDE PUBS by Kevin Mitchell (1996) p.131
The Lamb, Brunswick-place, Ryde, IW.*

*Part of a little cluster of pubs at this end of Station (formerly Brunswick) street, it opened in the mid 19th century and closed in 1923. Joseph EXTON brewed beer here from 1855 in one of Ryde's smallest pub breweries. Following a car crashing into the front of the building, extensive renovation has taken place and it is no longer recognisable as a pub. It was situated next door to the larger Eagle.
