MR. F. J. GRINHAM
a well-known Ryde man

Mr. Frederick James GRINHAM, 11 Surrey-street, died on Wednesday last at the age of 83. The end came very suddenly as the result of a stroke, which took place at his home on Monday. Mr. GRINHAM was discovered by a relative, Mr. H. MATTICK, of 49 Surrey-street, who had called to examine the gas meter, and deceased was later conveyed by ambulance to the residence of his daughter, Mrs. E. SHEPPARD, of 1 Rink-road, where he died without gaining consciousness.

He was a very active man and had enjoyed good health right up to the last, although of late years his eyesight had been extremely bad. A carpenter by trade, Mr. GRINHAM worked for many years for the late Mr. Isaac BARTON, but retired some 18 years ago. Walking was his favourite pastime and this he indulged in to a considerable extent. His wife Emily died 11 years ago and for some years he had lived with his son, Mr. A. GRINHAM.

The funeral took place on Saturday at Holy Trinity Church.
