ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday March 9th 1912

DEATH OF MR. BOWMER

The funeral of the late Mr. William BOWMER, who died on Wednesday of last week, took place on Saturday. The deceased was for many years house steward to Sir Richard and Lady SUTTON, and by a curious and sad coincidence his funeral took place on the day that their granddaughter was married to Captain HENEAGE. Mr. BOWMER was very well known to the older inhabitants, and his loss will be mourned by many friends. The funeral service was conducted at the Holy Trinity Church by the Vicar (Rev. J.E. EDDIS) and the interment was at the Ryde Cemetery.

The following sent flowers : His loving wife; Mr. and Mrs. W. MARSHALL (Grantham); his nieces Annie and Daisy (Nottingham); Molly and Harry MARSHALL (Nottingham); sister Eva, Percy and Cyril (Aylesbury); his sister-in-law Harriett; sister Lizzie; Mr. Alfred J. BINGHAM (Newbury); Mr. and Mrs. GODDARD (Swindon); In affectionate memory of a true and valued friend, from Col. and Mrs. MORETON (Bembridge); Mrs. MUSSELL and niece; Lizzie and Jeannie LAWRENCE; Mrs. E. PALMER BARFORD; Col. and Mrs. Edward RHODES; Major and Mrs. WILSON; Mr. and Mrs. MELLOR; a token of remembrance and regard from Mrs. Paul SWINBURNE, to an old friend; Mrs. RENSRAW; Miss SUTTON and Mr. Cecil SUTTON; Mr. and Mrs. GRIMES; Mr. A.E. SUTTON; Lady LEVINGE and Miss LEVINGE; in affectionate remembrance from Capt. and Mrs. Ernest DU BOULAY; the Misses DU BOULAY; and Mrs. Claire COCHRANE; from his old friend at 16 Winton-street; Mr. and Mrs. A.A. TUTTE; Mr. and Mrs. E.G. STROUD; E.A. and E.T. DENNIS; and Miss J. CROASDALL. Messrs. PURNELL carried out the funeral arrangements.
