

BIRTH: March ¼ 1905 (General Registrars ref: Wandsworth reg dist. Vol 1d. Page 696)
Annette Yelf MARVIN.

---

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 3rd December 1936 page 10

MISS A.Y. MARVIN

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. R.Y. MARVIN, of Elderslie, The Strand, Ryde, in the sad loss of their eldest daughter, Miss Annette Yelf MARVIN, who passed away on Thursday after a long illness. She was, for 11 years employed at the Kensington Post Office Savings Bank where her charming personality had endeared her to a wide circle of friends. She was taken ill in September of this year, and for eight months was a patient of the University College Hospital, Gower Street, W.C., where her patient fortitude gained the admiration of all. Later she was removed at her parents request to the Vectis Nursing Home, Ryde.

The May Lady Tennison Ambulance from Freshwater, travelled to London and back in a day, and the efficiency and attention received from the driver and nurse and the V.A.D., who accompanied the ambulance was deeply appreciated by Mr. and Mrs. MARVIN.

The funeral took place on Tuesday at St. Michael's Church, Swanmore, the Vicar, Rev. A.C. DURHAM, officiating, and the interment was in the family grave in Ryde Cemetery. The chief mourners were the bereaved parents Mr. and Mrs. R.Y. MARVIN, Mr. and Mrs. E.P. RICE MARVIN (uncle and aunt), Mr. and Mrs. F.W. YOUNG (aunt and uncle), Mr. and Mrs. L.C. YOUNG (aunt and uncle), Mr. Owen WALLIS (cousin), and Mrs. WALLIS, Miss M. MARVIN of Binstead and Mr. Lyndesay CURRIE (brother-in-law), representing Mrs. CURRIE, who was unavoidably prevented from attending.

The large number of wreaths included floral tributes from the Kensington Savings Club, from the sectional staff of the Bank, and from personal friends in the department.

---

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Marilyn Newsham