

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1018. folio 40.
Address: The ship "Princess Beatrice".

Joseph VAUGHAN. Master. Single. 40. Master Seas. Woolston, Hants.
Harry PARSONS. AB crew. Married. 25. AB Seaman. Cowes, IW.

(plus 13 other crew members)

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 12th April 1947 page 8

SEAMAN' SUDDEN DEATH

Watching the football match at Partlands on Saturday Mr. Harry PARSONS, an old supporter of the club, collapsed at half-time. He was taken to his home at 8 Station Street, by Mr. G.H. ALLEN, in his car and died the following morning. Mr. PARSONS who was 70 , had been a merchant seaman for half a century, travelling to most parts of the world on the P and O boats, and during the war on troopships. He was a member of the Clarence Lodge, R.A.O.B. the funeral on Wednesday was attended by brethren of the R.A.O.B.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Marilyn Newsham