ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday March 19th 1925

DEATH OF MRS. T. BEVIS

We regret to record the death after much suffering of Mrs. Alice Mary BEVIS, wife of Mr. Tom BEVIS, who is well-known as pier collector, which occurred at the County Hospital as the result of chronic nephritis. The deceased who was 53 years of age and much esteemed by a numerous circle of friends, was daughter of Mr. Thomas WILLIAMS, late manager of the firm of MAPPIN and WEBB, London and Sheffield. The funeral took place at the Cemetery on Monday, The interment being preceded by a service at All Saints at which the Vicar (the Rev. H. LE FLEMMING) officiated. The mourners comprised Messrs. T. BEVIS (husband), George and Ted BEVIS (brothers-in-law), Arthur and Bert (stepsons), G.A. and William WILLIAMS (brothers), Mrs. SCARR and Mrs. Bert CHAPMAN (sisters), Mr. Joseph GIBBS (brother-in-law), and Mr. Bert CHAPMAN. There were floral tributes from the Secretary and Staff of the Ryde Pier Co. and others Messrs. PERKIS and Son, were the undertakers.

NB: It has been noted that although the newspaper obituary spells the surname as BEVIS, it should have been BEVES.
