

THE MARRIAGE OF MISS MAUD DALY

The marriage took place on Monday, at the Parish Church, Frimley, of Miss Alice Maud DALY, youngest daughter of the late Gen. Sir Henry DALY, G.C.B., C.I.E., with Capt. Reginald Carlyon COATES, D.S.O., R.F.A., the Rev. COATES (father of the bridegroom), officiating, assisted by the Rev. J.H. BAYNHAM (military chaplain) and the Rev. H.C.STOKES. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Major Arthur DALY (west Yorkshire Regiment), looked charming in a dress of point d'Alencon lace over white satin, with a white tulle hat lined with pink roses, and she carried a bouquet of the same flowers, her ornaments being pearls and diamonds. The service was fully choral. The aisle of beautifully decorated church was lined with staff-sergeants and sergeants of the R.F.A., and the bride and bridegroom were driven away in a landau drawn by chestnut horses, ridden (postillion) by subaltern officers of the bridegroom's brigade of the Royal Field Artillery, with an escort of mounted non-commissioned officers. The same party escorted the happy pair to Farnborough Station on their departure to the Lakes for their honeymoon.

A reception was held after the wedding at Huntspill Lodge, Frimley Green, by Lieut. Col. And Mrs. A.H. CARTER (cousins of the bride), which was attended by numerous relatives of both the bride and bridegroom, officers of the R.F.A., and many other friends. Some very charming toilettes were noticed. Lady DALY wore a beautiful dove-coloured satin, with medallions of guipure lace, and a picture hat; Mrs. COATES (the bridegroom's mother) a handsome brocaded gown and bonnet with white aigrette; the Misses COATES pretty toilettes of pink voile and black lace hats; Mrs. Arthur DALY fawn silk faced cloth, embroidered with iris; and Mrs. A.H. CARTER a charming toilette of painted chiffon, with rainbow tulle hat trimmed with pink roses. The bride went away in a dress of striped grey and white alpaca, with embroidered lisse front and large collar of lace, and a most becoming hat of blue cornflowers was worn with this toilette.

The presents, which were numerous and valuable, included many articles of plate.
