*From the book RYDE PUBS by Kevin Mitchell (1996) p. 28.
The Wellington, 7 Pier-street, Ryde.*

*This seafront pub opened in 1855 when it was grandly called the Duke of Wellington, the prefix was dropped in 1860. It was a narrow building which extended through to Castle-street at the rear where the Wellington Tap served the staff of the large hotels. The Tap closed in 1905 and the Wellington in 1974. Currently it exists as a small gift shop.
