ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday September 4th, 1930

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT

The death took place on Thursday morning this week at the age of 86, of Mr. Norbert A. FALLICK, who resided at “Sunnyside,” Victoria Street, Ryde. He had been ill for about a month, and he retired some years ago after having been in business as a baker for thirty years at the premises now occupied by Mr. STEEL. Mr FALLICK was a member of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church on High Street and also an old member of the Oddfellows Lodge in Ryde, but on account of deafness he was not able to take an active part in its work. He leaves a son (Mr Frederick FALLICK) and four daughters, Mrs COGHLAN and her husband went out to Australia with Mr Frederick FALLICK some years ago. The other daughters are Mrs CAWS (of Portsmouth), Mrs CHIP and Miss FALLICK, who lived with her father. The funeral is arranged to take place on Saturday.
