OBITUARY

It is our painful duty this week to record the death of Mr. Samuel Walter CURTIS, who for the last ten years has acted as reporter for this journal, which event took place at his residence, Fountain Cottage, on Thursday.

The deceased was a man of happy disposition and pleasing manner, and was held in high esteem by a large number of friends, both in and out of the Island. Adverse circumstances however, have of late preyed upon his mind and marred the once happy countenance, and sorrow and despondency confined him to his bed for the last few weeks, but early on Thursday morning his spirit took its flight to that land where sorrow and sighing are known no more.

The deceased was in his 56th year, and his remains will be interred in the Cemetery on Monday morning. May he rest in peace.
