THE DEATH OF ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE ROYAL VICTORIA YACHT CLUB

We are sorry to announce, which has occurred since our last impression. Last week we were called upon to deplore the demise of Mr. Peter ROWE and Mr. Praed-TYRINGHAM; now it is our painful duty to record the decease of James LEES, Esq., of Trotton House, St John's Park, Ryde, which took place on Sunday afternoon last, at his residence. The deceased gentleman was a son of Sir John LEES, and was much respected. He has not been an enrolled member of the yacht club for a very long period, but the usual token of respect was shown at the club-house, and the flag was dipped to half-mast.
