DEATH OF LADY LEES

We deeply regret to record the death of Lady LEES, of Beechlands (sic). We understand that for some little time past the deceased lady has been ailing, but nevertheless her death took many by surprise. We need hardly say how deeply the loss of this kind and charitable lady is regretted by high and low, rich and poor, and the sympathy which is felt for Sir John LEES and his family in their mournful bereavement. The deceased lady was the daughter of the late Edward SULLIVAN, Esq., and was married to Sir John LEES in 1839
