LOCAL FANCIER'S DEATH

Local bird fancier's here learnt with regret of the death of Mr. Robert Daubeney NUNN aged 64, at his home Arreton, Prince-street, on Thursday, after two days illness. A native of London, he was formerly head messenger for the City of London Midland Bank. In 1926 he established the Fancier's Stores in Star-street and was a prominent member of the I.W. Cage Birds Society, of which he was a founder 21 years ago.

He served with the Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry during the first world war at Mons and on the Somme, and he was badly wounded.

His wife was formerly Miss Winifred MORRIS, a daughter of the late P. A. MORRIS, a leading member of the I.W. Cage Birds Society. Mr. NUNN was a member of the Island Branch of the "Old Contemptibles". Sympathy is felt with his widow and two daughters.

The funeral service takes place today at the Parish Church at 10.30 am.

Robert Daubeney NUNN

His name is recorded on the Isle of Wight Old Contemptibles Association Memorial at the Military Vehicle Museum, Newport
