DEATH OF MR HENRY LANDER

The death occurred after a short illness on Thursday week at 41 Prince-street, of Mr. Henry LANDER, a life-long resident. Deceased was very well-known, and his kindly unassuming nature won him many friends. He was a brother of Mr. T. LANDER, of Seaview, a member and former chairman of the St. Helen's Council. The remains were laid to rest in the Cemetery on Tuesday, where the Rev. M. Lister GAUNT officiated. The mourners were Messrs. T. LANDER (brother), A. H. JAMES (brother-in-law), W. LANDER (uncle) and E. C. and G. H. JAMES (nephews). Among others present were Alderman G. A. BLACKALL, J.P., Messrs. H. EAMES, H. G. JOLLIFFE, B. HOLBROOK. T. SNUDDEN, H. WEEKS, R. LOFT, F. WOODFORD, and E. BARTLETT. The wreaths included a token from the Ryde Social Club.
